CORONER TO FIX THE BLAME

No Victims Recovered Yesterday. Thousands of Spectators Crowd Around Scene-Defective Piling, or Violent Change in Bottom of Harbor, May Have Caused Wreck.

Special to The Washington Herald. Baltimore, Md., April 28.-While the bodies of several missing laborers are supposed to be at the bottom of the river nder the mass of wreckage of the big Baltimore and Ohio pier that collapsed yesterday, none was recovered to-day.
Only five men whose names are known are missing, but there were a number of negro laborers who were designated by pers. The bodies of some of these may be under the mass of debris. The coroner will summon a jury and begin his investigation to-morrow. perts will be examined as to the com struction of the pier. A theory that the new pier might have been unsettled by seismic disturbances has been advanced, but Prof. Reid, the Johns Hopkins expert after careful examination of the seism graph, says the film shows no record of any disturbance the past week.

Speculating on Cause of Disaster. The scene of the disaster attracted 12,000 people to-day. Crowds tried to get on a strong cordon of police kept them back. Hundreds of curious people tried to reach the partly submerged pier in small boats, but the police boats would not allow any craft near the wreck.

City Engineer Fendall, after an exami-nation of a portion of the pier, said: "It is entirely too early to attempt to tell definitely what caused the sinking. It the bottom. I would not presume to say which of these was the cause,"
